5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January, 28, 2010, the Compensation Committee of A. H. Belo Corporation (the Company) approved long-term incentive grants in the form of restricted stock units to various participants in the Company's 2008 Incentive Compensation Plan, as amended. Of the grants approved on January 28, 2010, the following named executive officers of the Company received restricted stock units that vest over a three-year period in the following amounts: Robert W. Decherd, Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer – 153,473; James M. Moroney III, Executive Vice President, Publisher and Chief Executive Officer, The Dallas Morning News – 80,775; Alison K. Engel, Senior Vice President/Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer – 56,543; and Daniel J. Blizzard, Senior Vice President and Secretary – 36,349. The restricted stock units vest at the rate of 40% at the end of year one, and 30% at the end of each of years two and three. The Committee gave particular weight to the retention aspect of the grants.

The Committee also approved an increase in Ms. Engel's annual base compensation from $267,750 to $300,000 and an increase in Mr. Blizzard's annual base compensation from $204,000 to $250,000. These increases are effective March 1, 2010, contemporaneous with the departure of the Company's Executive Vice President, Donald F. Cass, Jr. Certain responsibilities of Mr. Cass have been redistributed among Ms. Engel and Mr. Blizzard. The increases in base salaries are similar to increases for key employees for similar increases in responsibilities made at the operating unit level of the Company during 2009 and continuing into 2010.
